Vanderpool the Louing Partners in a Four-some-Coats Wine from Reene-Haugh-ton Victor in the Lenox Tournament. Two great scores were made at the Morria County Golf Club resterday, where the amaship that begins to-morrow. One was returned by Charles B. MacDonald, and was but a stroke above the new record for the links made by James A. Tyng on Friday. MacDonald went out in 30, and made the homeward nine in 42, a total of 81. But for a short put missed on the fifteenth green, it would have been an 80. In detail the card was: 0 6 6 7 5 4 4 5 5-62-b1

MacDonald, besides winning the amateur championship of 1895, has the additional honor of having won the gold medal for the best score In the oreliminary round last year. He may repeat either or both of these performances. The second of the fine scores was not made by an amateur, but it was of special interest, as it showed that the course will probably be made under 80 to-morrow. It is the professional record for the links, and was made by Will Anderson of Baltusrol, who was accompanied by Dan-iel Bacon, the smateur, as scorer. The card

LENOX, Sept. 10.-The finals for the Presideal's Cup were played to-day before a very large company of visiting golfers and cottagers and their guests. The weather was clear and cool and made the play interesting. The seeme on the links was very brilliant. Many of the young women and the golfers wore the scarlet cost of the club and the women the accompanying white duck skirt. The tea tent was filled during the afternoon, and here the wealth of the metropolis which makes up the fall visitors to Lenox gathered. The morning's play was the semi-finals between D. W. Bishon, Jr., of the Lenox Club and A. Morten of West Chester and Percy Houghton of the Harvard Club and G. A. Phelps of the Fairfield Club. The matches proved very interesting, as all the players were even up on the first round. Bishop best Morten by Sup and 2 to play. Canoe Club Baced. The New York Cance Club held its annual fall race at Bensonhurst yesterday. The first event was a sailing race, six miles, triangular course. a record event. F. C. Moore was in the Pioneer, Jack C. Mowbray in the Zipp, Louis H. May in the Aziz, George W. MacTeggart in the Lall, Will'am H. Pales in the Soubrette and H. H. Smythe in the Toreador. May was first home, with Moore second and Mowbra; third, but as May had failed to cross the finishing line, a protest was made and the Regat's Commt to line, a protect was made and the Regat's Committee sustained the protect and moved up the others back of May.

The one-half mile paddling race, decked cances, with tars, was won by A. A. Brennermann in the Samelees, with F. C. Moore in the Chost second and W. H. Carmalt in the Natty third.

In the three-mile race, salling, open cances, with leeboards, forty-foot limit, W. H. Carmal was first home in the Tanis, with W. F. Bailey in the Lottle recond.

The tandem paddling race, one-half mile with turn, open cances, single blades, was a close and interesting contest. Barron Fredericks and J. C. Mowhray hi the Shrimp wers first home, with Louis H. May and H. Lansing Quick in the Fraddle second, and W. F. Fales and George W. MacTaggart in the Cruiser third. W. F. Bailey and H. H. Smyths in the Lob-ster unset.

and M. Lansing Quice in the radials second, and W. H. Fales and George W. MacTaggart in the Cruiser third. W. F. Reiley and H. H. Smyths in the Lobster upset.

In the manusuring race, which fully tested the ability of the contestants, F. C. Moore was first, with George W. MacTaggart second, W. H. Fales third, and J. C. Mowbray fourth.

It took a full quarter of an hour to decide the tournament event in which cancetsix, with poles padded at the sndz, tried to upset such other. Mowbray defrested fishing the same and Frederick's defeated Moore, leaving the two winners for the final heat, which will be decided later on.

Club fours was a preity race. The Jill, in which Mowbray, MacTaggart, Frederichs and W. H. Fales ware the craw, won, with the Jack, in whose scats were Bennett, May, Smythe and Moore, second.

The members of the Brocklyn Cance Club resumed their series of foringhtly competitions reserved and the club-house, food of Fifty-fourth street, lay Ridge. The wind was strong and materially affected the result of the sailing races. The contests were spirited, however, and produced keen sport of a most enjoyable character. Half a dozen starters lined up for the 100-yard swimming competition; it was a straightsway race, and J. F. Eastmond finished first, with F. M. Pinkney a close second and Commodore Harry M. Dater third. Time, I minute 128 4.5 seconds.

The one-mile straightsway race for the paddling trophy was a preity race all the way. Robert J. Willim, with the Unqua, won, with the Ring Orioff, J. F. Eastmond, right behind him.

A triangular course of three miles was covered by the competitors in the sailing race in open cances. The strong wind made the carrying of all muslin a very fine art, and in this Commodore Harry M. Dater excelled, crossing the finishing line first, with Robert J. Wilkin second, and fir M. Pilniney third.

Aquatic Sports of the New York A. C. The aquatic experts of the New York A. C. had a gala day at Travers Island yesterday, when the an-nual regatta was held under ideal conditions. W. G. Douglas, who has won honors as swimmer and cyclist, made his debut as an oarsman, and fairly carried off the individual honors of the day. He won the single seuli handicep, stroked the winning pair-oared crew, and had a seat in the victorious eight-

Cared shell crew.

There was a desperate struggle in the trial heat of the pair-cared race, in which Douglas and Lyon beat Davis and Anderson by three feet. The winners afterward won the final by three lengths in easy style. Three crews started in the eight-oared shell event, which turned out to be the best race of the day. Radeliffe's crew won by a quarter of a length. day. Hadeliffe's crew won by a quarter of a length. Rearly twenty men started for the eighty-yard swim across to Glen Island, which Dr. Davis won after a desperate race by a touch.
